This bipartisan bill would improve the Education Department's statistical and research activities, including its data collection about school and academic libraries. Now this bill needs our support to pass!

TAKE ACTION